Christmas eve

Arrive to a warm festive welcome from the Gisborough Hall team and a selection of afternoon tea canapés. Unpack and settle into your room before joining us by the log fire for a carol concert. As you await dinner, sit back and enjoy live music, a selection of canapes and a glass of fizz.

Christmas day

Start the day with a hearty full Yorkshire breakfast and if you're feeling energetic take a stroll in the surrounding countryside to build up an appetite for lunch. Lunch will start with a Champagne reception as chef prepares a delicious three-course meal, followed by coffee and mince pies. In the afternoon the Queen's speech will be showing in the Inner Hall, where you can enjoy homemade Christmas cake and coffee by the log fire. To continue the festive feasting, enjoy chef's evening carved buffet.

Boxing day

After a good night's sleep, a full Yorkshire breakfast will be waiting. If you're feeling brave, head to the coast to join a 'Boxing Day dip' or for something a little warmer, grab a seat by the log fire and relax. At lunchtime chef will prepare an informal buffet and the fun will follow with a trip to the local pantomime. In the evening join us for a cocktail reception, black tie dinner and fun casino.

27th December

Enjoy a delicious breakfast before a fond farewell.

The days are just packed...

Wreath Workshop

Join Katy from Ginger Rose Florist and learn how to make a beautiful festive wreath. Using local foliage, natural materials such as pinecones, berries, and seed heads, you will create your own winter wreath to take home.

Being creative is thirsty work so we'll have plenty of hot drinks available plus festive cakes and sweet treats.

All materials will be supplied, although we do recommend you bring an apron and secateurs.
